It is always quite inspiring to learn about and witness the potential of the students unfolding with their write-ups. And the step taken by the students of Mass Communication and Journalism, IDOL, GU in the form of a Blog <http://risingvoices.in> is indeed appreciable.

As Lao Tzu said "The journey of a thousand miles begins with one step", so may this Blog reach a new horizon and set extraordinary example for all the students across & alike, in a near future.

Expressing oneself, in whatever context and content it might be, should never been clouded by the external forces suppressing the very urge of every human being to voice his thoughts; and may this Blog become such a platform for all the students to voice their thoughts without hindrances.

Congratulations to the editorial team and the students for their determined efforts in bringing out this Blog. I wish the team Rising Voices a grand success and a great future ahead!
